I was looking at my LBB collection, and got an idea, so voila!
Presenting the Traveller Sector Guidebook .cgi script. Creates and returns
a high-resolution (vector-art) pdf containing the sector data and hexmaps,
listed subsector by subsector.
#
Requires:
- James M. Perkins' Traveller software programs
http://traveller.mu.org/archive/software/SW4
- pstopdf
(built in on Mac OSX)
- enscript
(built in on Mac OSX)
- pdftk
http://freshmeat.projects.org/pdftk
- Paul J. Netherwood's 'full-upp'
#
Using sector tools, the sector data and individual subsector data is # created, and the PostScript hexmap is generated. Using pstopdf, the PostScript # hexmap is converted to a pdf. Using enscript, the text sector data is # converted to a PostScript file.

Due to quantum probabilistic effects of spacetime, the data contained in this report may represent an actual sector of space. Personnel who are exposed to this report are directed to handle this information accordingly, and to present themselves to Military Intelligence for re-education if required.
